

amore DI VINO

The oenologist Luigi Bertini was born in Quarona, in Valsesia. He completed his professional competence in Alba; now, he lives in Monticello d'Alba where he has his own vineyards.

He'd been manager of important wine cellars for about twenty years and then he decided to work as free-profession oenologist.

He's been dealing with the improvement and marketing of good -quality Italian wines for over 25 years both in Italy and the main international markets.

His global vision of wine world has been completed by many workshops out of Italy (France and U.S.A.)

He is a very requested teacher for professional wine tasters and he organizes courses of deepening Italian and foreign wines.

In 1986 he held a series of workshops on Italian wines in Chicago.

He has been a member of the board of directors of the Experimental Institute for Oenology of Asti.

At the moment, he is the manager of the heraldic Castel Foglione distribution.

He collaborates with the faculty of agriculture of the University of Turin where he teaches Comparative Analysis of Italian and foreign wines.

In 1990, his first book "Terre e vino di Gavi" has been published.
